Sandestin, FL

Lovely Sandestin is a private beachside resort town with access to an incredible variety of amenities. The "gated city" is located in southern Walton County, between the Gulf of Mexico and Choctawatchee Bay. The gorgeous resort city has over 7 miles of beach and bay front, filled with sugar-white sands.

Sandestin is made up of 30 neighborhoods filled with condominiums, houses, villas, townhomes, and hotel accommodations, along with a pedestrian's village with local shops, casual and fine dining, and nightlife venues.

Sandestin, as a resort town, has an economy that is centered on tourism and luxury. The area has 4 large golf courses, 15 tennis courts with community buildings and classes available, 19 swimming pools, a 113 slip marina for those who love to boat, and a fitness center and wellness spa.

Sandestin and the vibrant pedestrian village of Baytowne Wharf play host to numerous festivals and events in the lively town center, including concerts and celebration of other arts. Baytowne Wharf is also home to Seagar's, a AAA Four Diamond-rated restaurant, for those who wish to treat themselves to a luxurious gourmet meal.

The Northwest Florida Regional Airport located nearby makes Sandestin an easily accessible section of the Florida Panhandle's Emerald Coast.

From spas, nightlife, retail therapy, to more natural attractions like the beaches and scuba diving, Sandestin is a vibrant and varied resort community that will continue to welcome guests and residents home. As Sandestin grows, so too will the local tourism and service industry economy.
